

INSTITUTE
for
ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES

Beating the Odds: Addressing Problem Gambling in the Asian American Community

The Institute for Asian American Studies presents a lecture and panel discussion featuring Dr. Timothy Fong on problem gambling in the Asian American community. He will be joined by Chien-Chi Huang from the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling and Tram Tran from the Boston Police Department.

Dr. Timothy Fong,
Co-Director of the
UCLA Gambling Studies
Program

Featuring:

Dr. Timothy Fong, Co-Director of the Gambling Studies Program and Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at UCLA.

Chien-Chi Huang, Asian Community Program Manager at the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling.

Tram Tran, Vietnamese Community Liaison at the Boston Police Department.

Wednesday, March 25, 2009

2:00pm - 3:30pm

University of Massachusetts Boston

Campus Center Ballroom 3550B

Refreshments to follow

For more information please contact:

Nathan Bae Kupel
Programs and Events Assistant
Institute for Asian American Studies
(617) 287-5651, Nathan.kupel@umb.edu

