Bento & Baseball

A summer event in Lowell – a day of film, food & baseball game
Saturday, June 20, 2009

2:00 pm – Screening of “Kokoyakyu: High School Baseball”

Middlesex Community College, Federal Building, Assembly Room

50 Kearney Square, Lowell, MA

www.middlesex.mass.edu/CampusDirections/

For thousands of Japanese teens, their families and teachers, as well as millions of spectators, the annual tournament that begins with some 4,000 teams and finishes with 49 teams competing for the national championship at Koshien Stadium in Osaka manages to be both pure baseball – and purely Japanese. In Japan, baseball is not a pastime – it's a national obsession. Produced by Takayo Nagasawa; written & produced by Alex Shear; directed by Kenneth Eng (2006).

Immediately followed by potluck bento lunch.

Please bring one dish per person. Each dish should serve at least 6 people.

5:00 pm – Lowell Spinners vs. Vermont Lake Monsters

LeLacheur Park, 450 Aiken St., Lowell, MA, www.lowellspinners.com

Donation:

NE JACL Members: $10 per person

Non-Members: $12 per person
